Remuneration

Where MCS registers the Partnership under the Law, MCS shall be entitled to receive a registration fee payable promptly when invoiced in accordance with the Fee Schedule in effect as at the Commencement Date.

MCS shall be entitled to receive a fee for the provision of the registered office of the Partnership payable in advance by 1 January in each year in accordance with the Fee Schedule in effect at the time when the relevant fee is invoiced. Such fee will be pro-rated (on a monthly basis) in the initial calendar year of these Terms but not thereafter save that MCS shall rebate 50% of such fee to the Partnership in the final calendar year of these Terms if, on or before 30 June of such year, the Partnership ceases to exist or MCS ceases to provide the registered office to the Partnership in accordance with these Terms.

MCS shall be entitled to receive a fee for the provision of the other services set out in Schedule 1 to these Terms and other fees as set out in the Fee Schedule payable promptly when

All fees, expenses and disbursements payable to MCS pursuant to these Terms shall be paid net of any taxes or surcharges.

Any requests received by MCS from the Partnership for legal advice or services and any legal issues arising or assistance required (in either case as determined by MCS) from or in relation to documentation received at the registered office including, but not limited to, the updating of the statutory registers, shall be referred to Maples and Calder and the Partnership agrees to settle promptly the resulting fees and disbursements of Maples and Calder, which shall be charged in accordance with its fee rates and terms and conditions of business as then in effect.

Termination

MCS shall be entitled to terminate its appointment under these Terms:

- (a) by giving not less than three (3) months' written notice to the Partnership;
- (b) by giving not less than thirty (30) days' written notice to the Partnership if the Partnership shall have committed any breach of its obligations under these Terms and shall have failed to make good such breach within thirty (30) days of receipt of notice served by MCS requiring it to do so; or

- (c) by giving not less than seven (7) days' written notice to the Partnership if the Partnership is in material breach of any regulatory law applicable to it or is subject to any international financial sanction or is otherwise designated as a person with whom MCS is prohibited from dealing.

- (a) by giving not less than three (3) months' written notice to MCS; or
- (b) by giving not less than thirty (30) days' written notice to MCS if MCS shall have committed any breach of its obligations under the Terms and shall have failed to make good such breach within thirty (30) days of receipt of notice served by the Partnership requiring it to do so.

A termination of the appointment of MCS under the provisions above shall be without prejudice to any pre-existing liability of the parties to these Terms. MCS shall be entitled to receive all fees, expenses and disbursements accrued due up to the date of such termination, whether under these Terms or otherwise.

MCS shall, on the termination of its appointment under these Terms and upon payment by or on behalf of the Partnership of any outstanding fees, costs and expenses due to MCS or to Maples, deliver or procure to be delivered to the Partnership, or as the Partnership may direct, the registers and other partnership records of the Partnership which are in its possession or under its control.

The Partnership shall, on the termination of the appointment of MCS under these Terms, if still in existence, procure that all necessary steps are taken by the Partnership to transfer the registered office of the Partnership to an alternative location and MCS shall be entitled to serve notice on the Registrar advising that it is no longer providing the registered office to the Partnership.

Complaints

If you have any complaint about any aspect of the service being provided to you under these Terms, you should raise your concern with your usual Maples Group contact. If your complaint is not thereafter resolved to your satisfaction, you should email your complaint to notices@maples.com and your complaint will be considered by a director of MCS.

Legal Action

MCS shall not be required to take any legal action on behalf of the Partnership other than as may be expressly agreed in writing. In no circumstances shall MCS take any such action unless it and its directors, officers, authorised signatories, employees and affiliates are fully indemnified and remunerated to their reasonable satisfaction for costs and liabilities.

Instructions and Reliance

In performing its duties MCS shall be entitled to rely upon instructions given by, or purporting to be given by an authorised signatory of the Partnership or of a General Partner or by any legal adviser, manager or administrator appointed by the Partnership.

Responsibility, Limitation of Liability, Indemnity and Release

MCS shall not be liable for any damages, losses, claims, proceedings, demands, liabilities, costs or expenses whatsoever suffered or incurred by the Partnership or any other person at any time from any cause whatsoever arising out of or in connection with these Terms or related to the performance or non-performance of the services provided under these Terms unless arising directly as a result of MCS's actual fraud or wilful default or that of any of its directors, officers, employees or agents (as the case may be).

The Partnership shall indemnify (on a full indemnity basis) and hold harmless MCS and Maples, their successors and assigns and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents and partners (collectively, the "Indemnified Persons") and each of them, as the case may be, against all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, proceedings, claims, judgments, demands, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind (including legal fees and expenses) whatsoever which they or any of them may incur or be subject to in consequence of these Terms or as a result of the performance of these Terms or as a result of the performance of the services under these Terms except and to the extent that the same are as a result of the actual fraud or wilful default of the relevant Indemnified Person and this indemnity shall expressly inure to the benefit of any such Indemnified Person existing or future. No person shall be found to have committed actual fraud or wilful default under these Terms unless or until a court of the Cayman Islands has reached a final non-appealable determination to that effect.

MCS shall not be liable in tort, statutory duty, pre-contract or misrepresentation (other than fraudulent misrepresentation) or otherwise for (i) any consequential, indirect or special loss; or (ii) any economic losses (including loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), arising out of or in connection with these Terms in each case whether or not MCS has been advised of the possibility of such loss or damage and howsoever incurred. For the avoidance of doubt MCS shall not be so liable for any loss of goodwill or reputation.

Unless caused by their actual fraud, the maximum aggregate liability of any Indemnified Person(s) under these Terms is limited to US$10 million.

This Responsibility, Limitation of Liability, Indemnity and Release provision shall survive termination of these Terms.

Miscellaneous

These Terms may not be assigned by either party without the written consent of the other save only that MCS may assign the benefit and/or burden of these Terms to a suitably licensed Maples entity as part of any group restructuring.

Without prejudice to the seventh paragraph of the Remuneration provision above, MCS may, at its own expense, delegate all or any of the services on its part to be performed under these Terms to another Maples entity. If MCS does delegate all or any of the services to another Maples entity in accordance with this paragraph (a "Delegate"), MCS shall nonetheless remain solely responsible to the Partnership for the provision of the services and liable to the Partnership for any loss caused to the Partnership by the Delegate but only to the extent that MCS would have been liable for such loss under these Terms if such loss were caused by MCS itself and the Delegate shall have no liability of any sort whatsoever or howsoever arising under these Terms or as a consequence of the delegation of all or any services to it. The Partnership agrees that it may not bring any claim against any Delegate in relation to the provision of services under these Terms by MCS.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Terms MCS shall, at all times, comply with all laws and regulations applicable to it including but not limited to its obligations as the holder of a trust licence regulated by CIMA.

Data Protection and Records

In providing the services and otherwise fulfilling its obligations under these Terms, MCS may from time to time be required to process information which: (i) constitutes "personal data" as defined in section 2 of the Data Protection Law of the Cayman Islands ("DPL"); and (ii) is disclosed to or otherwise made available to MCS by or on behalf of the Partnership ("Relevant Personal Data"). The Partnership acknowledges and agrees that: (a) to the extent MCS acts as a "data controller" (as defined in section 2 of DPL) in respect of the Relevant Personal Data, MCS may process the Relevant Personal Data in accordance with the applicable data protection laws (including DPL) and MCS's privacy notice (available at <https://www.maples.com/privacy/> or upon request); and (b) to the extent MCS acts as a "data processor" (as defined in section 2 of DPL) in respect of the Relevant Personal Data, the provisions of the "Data Processing Addendum (Cayman)" (in the form available at <https://www.maples.com/privacy/>) shall apply to any processing of Relevant Personal Data undertaken by MCS.

EU General Data Protection Regulation

Where the Partnership is directly subject to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of 27 April 2016 ("GDPR") due to Article 3(2)(a) of GDPR and MCS is required to process any Relevant Personal Information which is subject to GDPR, or alternatively, where the Partnership requires MCS to process Relevant Personal Data which the Partnership indirectly sources from an affiliate of the Partnership or a relevant third party domiciled in the EEA, the Partnership may request that MCS enter into EU standard contractual clauses ("EU SCC") with the Partnership:

- (a) in the form set out in Commission Decision 2004/914/EC; and/or
- (b) in the form set out in Commission Decision 2010/87/EU; and/or
- (c) in such other form as the European Commission may adopt from time to time pursuant to Article 46 of GDPR, but only if and to the extent the Partnership is unable to rely on Article 45 or Article 49 of GDPR in making the Relevant Personal Data available to MCS.

MCS shall not unreasonably refuse the Partnership's request that MCS enters into an EU SCC.

Confidentiality

It is agreed between the Partnership and MCS (together, the "Parties") that neither Party shall, at any time, disclose to any other person and shall treat as confidential, any information relating to the business, finances or other matters of the other Party, which such Party has obtained as a result of its relationship with the other Party under these Terms, save where the information is or was:

- (a) already known to the recipient from a source other than the other Party without any obligation of confidentiality;
- (b) in the public domain or becomes public knowledge otherwise than as a result of the unauthorised or improper conduct of the disclosing Party;
- (c) disclosed as required by any law or order of any court, tribunal or judicial equivalent, or pursuant to any direction, request or requirement (whether or not having the force of law) of any central bank, governmental, supervisory or other regulatory agency or taxation authority (provided that, if legally permissible, the recipient will promptly inform the other Party of any such order, direction, request or requirement prior to disclosing any information);
- (d) disclosed for legitimate business purposes to affiliates, professional advisors, service providers or agents, engaged by one of the Parties, who receive the same under a duty of confidentiality;
- (e) made available by a third party who is/was entitled to divulge such information and who is not under any obligation of confidentiality in respect of such information to the other Party; or
- (f) disclosed with the consent of the other Party.

The Parties shall ensure, and it is deemed to be understood and relied upon, that any confidential information provided to the other Party in relation to any General Partner, Limited Partners, principals, affiliates, shareholders, beneficial owners, directors, officers, employees and agents ("Subject Persons") of the disclosing Party is and has been provided with the consent and acceptance of the relevant Subject Persons, which the disclosing Party will be responsible for obtaining.

This Confidentiality provision: (i) does not prohibit MCS from disclosing information within Maples for legitimate business purposes (subject to any such recipients of confidential information keeping it confidential in accordance with these Terms); (ii) does not prohibit the Partnership from disclosing a copy of these Terms to its Partners or prospective Partners; and (iii) shall survive termination of these Terms.

Anti-bribery

MCS has policies and procedures in place relating to bribery and corruption. MCS will not on the Partnership's behalf or otherwise: (a) make any payment, offer or promise to pay money or anything of value to any public official for the purpose of influencing the act or decision of, or for securing an improper advantage from such public official; or (b) make any payment, offer or promise to pay money or anything of value to any other person or entity if such payment, offer or promise is made for the purpose of influencing or securing any improper advantage; or (c) undertake any activities which will result in a contravention of the Anti-Corruption Law of the Cayman Islands or any other anti-bribery legislation applicable to MCS.

Third Party Rights

A person who is not a party to these Terms may not, in its own right or otherwise, enforce any term of these Terms except that the Indemnified Persons and any Delegate may, in their own right, enforce their rights pursuant to the Responsibility, Limitation of Liability, Indemnity and Release provision and the Miscellaneous provision of these Terms subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Law of the Cayman Islands.

Notwithstanding any other term of these Terms, the consent of any person who is not a party to these Terms (including, without limitation, any Indemnified Person or Delegate) is not required for any amendment to, or variation, release, rescission or termination of these Terms.

This Third Party Rights provision shall survive termination of these Terms.

Notices

Any notices to be given under these Terms shall be sufficiently given if sent by hand, pre-paid courier, email or by fax and shall be deemed to be received (in the case of email and fax) at 10.00 a.m. on the next business day in the place of receipt following dispatch or (in the case of by hand or by courier), five (5) days after the dispatch thereof and shall be sent:

address as specified by the Partnership to MCS in writing on or about the Commencement Date;

- (c) to such other correspondence address, fax number or email address or for the attention of such other person as may from time to time be notified by one party to the other party by notice given in accordance with the provisions of these Terms; and
- (d) in the absence of any address specified or notified pursuant to (b) and (c) above, to such other address as MCS in its sole and absolute discretion considers appropriate.

Severance

If any provision of these Terms shall be found by any court or arbitrator to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the other provisions of these Terms which shall remain in full force and effect.

If any provision of these Terms is so found to be invalid or unenforceable but would be valid or enforceable if some part of the provision were modified, the provision in question shall apply with such modification(s) as may be necessary to make it valid.

Variation

The Partnership acknowledges and agrees that MCS may, in its sole discretion, at any time and from time to time change, alter, adapt, add or remove portions of these Terms (including the Fee Schedule), and, if MCS does so, MCS will post any such changes on both the Maples site (www.maples.com) and the Maples e-Services site (www.mapleservices.com) bearing the date on which such Terms came into effect. The current version of these Terms is also available on request. The Partnership's continued use of MCS's services following any such change shall be deemed and constitutes the Partnership's acceptance of those changes and the Partnership acknowledges and agrees to be bound by the current version of these Terms at all times and that unless stated in the current version of these Terms all previous versions shall be superseded by the current version.

Arbitration and Waiver of Legal Proceedings

All claims, disputes and controversies arising out of or in connection with these Terms, may, at MCS's option, be subject to binding arbitration to be held in the Cayman Islands before a retired judge or senior lawyer to be agreed upon between the parties or in the absence of such agreement to be appointed by the President of the Cayman Islands Law Society or the President of any successor self-regulatory association for Cayman Islands attorneys (or, if such President is affiliated with Maples, the Vice President). The arbitration will be conducted in English and in accordance with the London Court of International Arbitration Rules. The arbitrator's award shall be final and binding and may be entered in or enforced by any competent court. If court action (including any kind of claim, suit or proceeding) has been initiated by the Partnership against MCS at or prior to the time MCS elects to refer the issue to arbitration as provided for under these Terms, then it is agreed that such action shall be discontinued, unless any arbitrator appointed determines that MCS has waived the right to such a discontinuance by participating in the action without having raised, reserved or asserted its rights under this provision.

Entire Agreement

These Terms supersede all previous agreements between the Partnership and MCS for the provision of registered office services and the services set out in Schedule 1 to these Terms to the Partnership. These Terms set out the entire agreement and understanding between the parties relating to its subject matter.

Proper Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms and any dispute, claim, suit, action or proceeding of whatever nature arising out of or in any way related to them or their formation (including any non-contractual disputes or claims) are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of the Cayman Islands.

Subject to the Arbitration and Waiver of Legal Proceedings provision set out above, each of the parties to these Terms irrevocably agrees that the courts of the Cayman Islands shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine any claim, suit, action or proceeding, and to settle any disputes, which may arise out of or are in any way related to or in connection with these Terms, and, for such purposes, irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts.

MCS shall maintain at the registered office a minute book in electronic form containing the following documents and information in relation to the Partnership:

As required by the Law, such register shall be open to public inspection.

The General Partner shall maintain the register of Limited Partners elsewhere unless the General Partner requests, and MCS agrees in writing, to maintain the register of Limited Partners. Such register shall be open to inspection during all usual business hours by all Partners (subject to any express or implied term of the Partnership Agreement which has been notified to MCS by the General Partner) or by any other person with the consent of the General Partner. Where it has not been agreed that MCS or Maples will prepare and update the register of Limited Partners, the register of Limited Partners kept at the registered office will be such register as provided from time to time by the General Partner. MCS reserves the right, in its absolute discretion, to cease to maintain the register of Limited Partners if the number of limited partners or volume of issuances and transfers of limited partnership interests to be recorded are such that they exceed MCS's policy for maintaining such registers and necessitate the appointment of a separate registrar and transfer agent to maintain it.

Filings and Registrations

Where requested by the Partnership, MCS shall apply for the undertaking as to tax concessions issued by the Financial Secretary and/or any renewal of the same.

Upon receipt of the relevant documents (including any relevant resolutions), information and instructions from the Partnership, and a signed statement from a General Partner containing notification of any amendment in the particulars filed with the Registrar, MCS shall ensure that any formalities of filing and registration arising as a result of the following are complied with:

MCS shall have no liability to the Partnership for any consequences of any late filings and registrations (including but not limited to in relation to any penalty fees imposed) unless information and instructions from the Partnership have been received by MCS at least five (5) Business Days in advance of the relevant filing and registration deadline.

Unless otherwise instructed in writing by a General Partner, MCS shall prepare, sign as authorised signatory for the General Partner and file with the Registrar, the declaration required to be submitted annually to the Registrar.

If the Partnership's activities are regulated under additional legislation in the Cayman Islands, MCS will, by agreement with the Partnership, assist the Partnership to comply with any resulting registration, filing or payment obligations.

If MCS agrees to assist the Partnership, the Partnership shall provide MCS with all such information and documents as MCS determines, in its sole and unfettered discretion, are necessary to effect any such application for registration and/or notification. The Partnership acknowledges that an attestation will be required of a nominated responsible officer/principal point of contact in such application for registration and/or notification to the effect that: (a) the information provided is accurate, true, correct and complete; and (b) the Partnership will comply with its obligations under the AEOI Laws. The Partnership therefore agrees that the information provided for these purposes will be accurate, true, correct and complete and that it will comply with its obligations under the AEOI Laws in accordance with the attestation.

The Partnership acknowledges and agrees that, save as provided in these Terms, MCS shall not be responsible for assisting the Partnership comply with any other AEOI Laws applicable to it.

In addition to the funds having to be cleared and available to MCS from the bank account notified to the Partnership at least five (5) Business Days in advance of the applicable payment deadline, the funds must also have been transferred with allocation details in accordance with the instructions set out in the relevant invoice clearly and unambiguously referencing them to the Partnership. In particular, MCS must first be put in funds in accordance with this paragraph before settling on behalf of the Partnership the annual declaration fees payable to the Registrar in January of each year.

MCS shall have no liability to the Partnership (including, but not limited to, in relation to any penalty fees imposed) for any consequences to the Partnership of any failure to file (or any late filing of) annual filing fees within the time frame prescribed by law to maintain the Partnership in good standing under the laws of the Cayman Islands or any other fees payable by the Partnership to the Registrar or CIMA if MCS has not first been put in funds in accordance with the paragraph immediately above.

MCS shall use all reasonable endeavours to forward to the Partnership all correspondence and other communications addressed to the Partnership and received by MCS on its behalf. MCS is not obliged to open or to review such correspondence or communications and will forward them to the Partnership by such means as MCS considers appropriate absent specific written instructions from the Partnership and agreement as to fees in relation to the forwarding method. MCS shall not be liable to the Partnership for the late receipt by the Partnership or non-delivery of any such correspondence and other communications which MCS receives on behalf of the Partnership from third parties absent the actual fraud or wilful default of MCS.
