

MAPLES
GROUP

Trusts & Private Client

Trusts & Private Client

Advising on the laws of the British Virgin Islands, the Cayman Islands, Ireland, Jersey and Luxembourg, our expert legal advisers bring decades of experience to their role in the provision of commercial solutions and practical advice on a wide range of trusts and private wealth questions.

Choosing the right adviser to handle your or your family's complex legal issues is a crucial first step in the setting up of flexible and appropriate estate or succession planning and commercial trust structures. Our leading experts deliver effective advice carefully tailored to meet your requirements.

The Maples Group advises some of the world's largest private businesses, individual private clients, institutional trustees and other fiduciary service providers on matters concerning all types of private trusts and estate planning structures, as well as trusts and fiduciary arrangements used in commercial transactions.

With access to our global network of offices and the support, strength and depth of expertise of our Dispute Resolution & Insolvency team, we are well-positioned to provide expert advice and help clients avoid or resolve disputes should the need arise.

We advise on:

- Private wealth trusts
- Commercial trusts
- Structures to effect charitable and philanthropic giving
- Trust litigation