

MAPLES
GROUP

Intellectual Property

Intellectual Property

Intellectual property can be the most valuable asset in a business and yet the hardest thing to protect and exploit. Lawyers in our specialist Intellectual Property group have technical and industry backgrounds, giving them exceptional depth of knowledge and expertise to advise on British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands and Irish intellectual property matters.

We advise a broad range of clients from start-up and early stage to multinationals with respect to the best means to protect and extract value from their intellectual property rights. In this regard, we advise on all aspects of:

- Licensing and royalties
- Technology transfer
- Copyright
- Trade marks
- Patents
- Design rights
- Database rights
- Domain names
- Trade secrets
- Branding and e-commerce
- Structuring for intellectual property

In addition, our Dispute Resolution & Insolvency group provides expertise and support with respect to the protection and enforcement of intellectual property rights.