Funds & Investment Management

Jersey | Legal Services

As a key investment fund domicile for over 50 years, Jersey continues to attract leading global managers with assets under administration having grown steadily in recent years to new record highs. The jurisdiction offers access to the EU market through the use of EU private placement regimes and is combined with entirely AIFMD-free marketing to investors outside of the EU.

Our fast growing Jersey office provides us with a well-developed perspective on the investment funds market. We are the only Jersey law firm which has a presence in all the key European jurisdictions of Dublin, Jersey, London and Luxembourg alongside key global locations such as Singapore, Dubai and Hong Kong, and are accordingly able to provide unbiased Jersey legal advice to guide you to the most appropriate domicile to structure your fund.

Full Spectrum of Products

We provide specialist legal advice to multi-nationals and institutional investment firms, leading fund managers and investors. We advise clients on:

- Structuring of funds across all asset classes – particularly private equity, venture capital, real estate, credit and infrastructure, but also hedge and other emerging asset classes
- Managed accounts, joint ventures and club investment structures
- Co-investment and investment holding structures
 - Public and private funds
- UK REITs and other real estate investment holdings structures
- Shariah-compliant structures
- TISE, CSX and Euronext listings

Our funds offering sits alongside our wider expertise across corporate and finance areas, and allows us to provide high quality advice across all areas relating to corporate, regulatory and financing issues.

Clients Advocates

We have long standing relationships with the Jersey government, regulator (the Jersey Financial Services Commission) and other industry groups and have been closely involved in developments across the industry, taking a number of

Offering Jersey and UK Services

The Maples Group offers legal and administrative services in Jersey combined with administration services in London. This cross-border and complementary suite of services is commonly required where investment vehicles are Jersey or UK tax-resident Jersey companies and UK companies used on downstream private equity and real estate transactions.

Our experienced team of partners and senior associates have over 100 years' experience from both domestic and international law firms, and our experts are consistently ranked in leading legal directories.

A complementary suite of services is commonly required where investment vehicles are UK tax-resident Jersey companies and UK companies used on downstream private equity transactions.
