Documents, Records and Information to be Supplied by the Company

The Company shall, within the prescribed time limits, and in the absence of a prescribed time limit, as soon as reasonably practicable after the occurrence of a specified event or after the request of MARS, promptly provide to MARS the documents, records and information relating to or written confirmation of the matters required to be given to the Commission by the Company under the Act, the FSC Act, the Regulatory Code, the Mutual Funds Regulations, the relevant provisions of other Financial Services Legislation or by the Commission, including the matters set out below (and in the case of documents and records shall provide photocopies of the following signed or final and approved documents together with any attachments):

KYC Information

The Company acknowledges and agrees that MARS is required to comply with the AMLRs. MARS may decline or cease to provide registered agent and office services to the Company (in accordance with the Termination provisions of these Terms) where MARS or the Maples Group has not received satisfactory KYC Information, such as documentation verifying to MARS's satisfaction the identity of the Company and its beneficial owners, controllers or authorised persons (where applicable), source of funds and/or source of wealth (where applicable), and an explanation of the nature of the Company's business. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by MARS, the Company shall provide to MARS by or on the Commencement Date, and promptly on request from time to time by MARS, such KYC Information as may be required by MARS in its sole discretion which may include:

- (a) originals or copies of the Company's: (i) certificate of incorporation; (ii) Articles; (iii) register of Directors and register of Members; and (iv) certificate of good standing or similar document;
- (b) evidence satisfactory to MARS of the identity of, and references in relation to: (i) each Member holding not less than a 10% interest in the Company and/or any natural person who exercises ultimate effective control over the management of the Company; (ii) the Directors; (iii) each Beneficial Owner (as defined under the AMLRs); and (iv) any person (or persons) on whose instructions MARS may act in relation to the Company;
- (c) an explanation of the nature of the Company's business and, if applicable, an ownership/organisational chart or agreed form of representation letter;
- (d) source of funds and/or source of wealth; and
- (e) such other information and documentation, including enhanced customer due diligence information and/or documentation, as MARS may from time to time reasonably require in relation to the Company and its Directors, Members, Beneficial Owners (as defined under the AMLRs), and/or the Company's source of funds or activities in accordance with the requirements of the AMLRs.

The Company may provide KYC Information as an Electronic Record subject to MARS's discretion to require hard copies and/or certified copies, including where MARS is unable to ensure the authenticity of any such electronic document(s). Where a document and/or certification is in a language other than English, MARS may in its sole discretion require a certified translation. All copy documents must be the most recent version and have been certified by a suitable certifier, which includes such professionals as an attorney, accountant, notary public, judge, senior civil servant, government official or director or manager of a regulated credit or financial institution. No individual can certify their own documents.

The Company represents and warrants that all KYC Information provided under these Terms is true, correct and complete as at the Commencement Date. The Company undertakes to notify MARS promptly (and in any event within 15 days) of any change in circumstances which causes any KYC Information to be inaccurate, incomplete or not current (including expired identification documents) and shall provide MARS with updated information and/or documentation as applicable or as requested.

The Company further represents and warrants, for the benefit of MARS for themselves and on trust and as agents for the benefit of any other relevant members of the Maples Group, that:

- (a) all capitalisation monies and other funds passing through the Company do not originate from, nor will they be routed through, an account maintained in a shell bank and/or a bank organised or chartered under the laws of a country or territory that is designated by the Financial Action Task Force as a "High Risk Jurisdiction subject to a Call for Action"; and
- (b) such monies are from legitimate sources and are not directly, or to the Company's knowledge indirectly, derived from activities that may contravene applicable laws and regulations, including laws and regulations governing money laundering, terrorist financing, proliferation financing, corruption and bribery or sanctions.

MARS may refuse to perform any or all of its obligations under these Terms if it determines, in its sole and unfettered discretion, that to do so would constitute a criminal or regulatory offence in the British Virgin Islands or would otherwise contravene a law, regulation or sanctions restriction of the British Virgin Islands. MARS will inform the Company promptly of any decision to refuse to perform an obligation under these Terms in accordance with this provision.

Recycling of KYC Information

The Company acknowledges and agrees that:

- (a) if and to the extent other members of the Maples Group already hold KYC Information required by MARS, MARS may, instead of requesting such KYC Information from the Company, source such KYC Information from the relevant members of the Maples Group notwithstanding any restriction as to confidentiality that may apply to the relevant members of the Maples Group in relation to such KYC Information;
- (b) MARS may share any KYC Information provided by the Company with other members of the Maples Group, if and to the extent the other members of the Maples Group have a need to use such KYC Information to conduct due diligence checks on the Company or any of its connected persons in accordance with the requirements of the AMLRs, the BOSS Act or other applicable laws that are equivalent or analogous to any of the foregoing; and
- (c) where MARS shares the KYC Information with other members of the Maples Group in accordance with the preceding subparagraph, this may result in further onward disclosure of the KYC Information to other clients that receive services from MARS or other members of the Maples Group and related parties and who need to know the KYC Information for legitimate business purposes (e.g. investment funds which are serviced by MARS or other members of the Maples Group and which the Company or any of its connected persons have subscribed to, as well as advisors and service providers engaged by such investment funds).

MARS and other members of the Maples Group recycle the KYC Information as described above to ensure that services which are contingent on the timely collection of KYC Information can be completed efficiently for the benefit of the Company and its connected persons, as well as for the benefit of other clients of MARS and the Maples Group.

If the Company does not wish to have its KYC Information shared and recycled as described above, and the Company is prepared to receive and comply with repeated requests for KYC Information that MARS and/or other parts of the Maples Group may make in relation to services MARS and other members of the Maples Group provide to the Company or other clients, the Company may opt out from the recycling of KYC information as described above, by notifying MARS in writing.

Services Improper or Unlawful

MARS may refuse to perform any or all of its obligations under these Terms if it determines, in its sole and unfettered discretion, that to do so would constitute a criminal or regulatory offence in the British Virgin Islands or would otherwise contravene a law of the British Virgin Islands. MARS will inform the Company promptly of any decision to refuse to perform an obligation under these Terms made in accordance with this provision.

Services Non-Exclusive

MARS shall be at liberty to provide services of a like nature to the Services to any other person or persons as it may think fit whether for its own account or that of any other person.

Neither MARS nor any member of the Maples Group or other person associated with MARS or the Maples Group shall, in consequence of the appointment of MARS pursuant to these Terms or in consequence of any transaction entered into by the Company with MARS (or with a member of the Maples Group or with any such associate), be liable to account to the Company for any profits (whether disclosed or not) accruing to MARS (or to a member of the Maples Group or to any such associate) from, or by virtue of, any such transaction.

No Fiduciary Relationship

MARS shall not in performing its functions as authorised representative be an officer or other fiduciary of the Company and does not owe the Company any special duty of care, other than that of agent, when performing its function as authorised representative and shall have no duty or obligation to undertake any action on behalf of the Company unless expressly requested by the Company.

No Obligation to Account

Neither MARS nor the Maples Group shall, in consequence of the appointment of MARS pursuant to these Terms or in consequence of any transaction entered into by the Company with MARS or the Maples Group, be liable to account to the Company for any profits (whether disclosed or not) accruing to MARS or to the Maples Group from, or by virtue of, any such appointment or transaction.

Remuneration

MARS has appointed MCS BVI as its billing and collection agent and it is agreed that fees, expenses and disbursements payable by the Company to MARS shall be invoiced by, and promptly paid to, MCS BVI as agent for MARS.

MARS shall be entitled to receive a non-refundable fee for the provision of the Services, payable in advance by 1 February each year in accordance with the Fee Schedule in effect at the time when the relevant fee is invoiced, and any expenses, disbursements and charges incurred as a consequence of sending and/or responding to any notices or requests for information under the BOSS Act or responding to queries in respect to it however so arising.

MARS shall also be entitled to recover from the Company all expenses and disbursements (including filing and registration fees paid to the Commission, courier, telephone, fax, printing, postage and photocopying) properly incurred or paid by MARS on behalf of the Company or otherwise in the performance of the Services.

MARS shall be entitled to recover from the Company all expenses and disbursements (including, but not limited to, filing and registration fees paid to the Commission, charges for messengers and couriers, faxes, word processing, printing, postage, photocopying, scanning, telephone charges, secretarial overtime (where attributable to the Company's special needs) and other similar costs and expenses), properly incurred or paid by MARS in the performance of its services under these Terms. Further details of the rates and manner in which MARS charges for these costs are available on request.

If MARS is requested to undertake any services not covered by these Terms it shall inform the Company that such services are not covered by these Terms and, if MARS agrees to provide such services, unless otherwise agreed in writing by MARS and the Company, it shall charge the then applicable rate for such service in accordance with the Fee Schedule in effect at the time when the relevant service is provided. Such services may be invoiced separately from the Services.

All invoiced Fees payable to MARS pursuant to these Terms shall be paid net of any taxes or surcharges. Invoiced sums collected by MCS BVI, including monies for payments to be made by MARS on the Company's behalf, are agreed as paid and received in settlement of a debt due by the Company to MARS for services rendered in accordance with Schedule 1 to these Terms.

Any requests for legal advice or legal services received by MARS from the Company and any issues arising from or in connection with the Services or the provision of documents, records and information by the Company to MARS in accordance with the Terms and which in the reasonable judgment of MARS require legal assistance shall be referred to the firms of Maples and Calder and the Company agrees to settle promptly the fees and disbursements of the firms of Maples and Calder, which shall be charged to the Company in accordance with the fee rates and terms and conditions for the provision of legal services then in effect.

MARS reserves the right not to pay any annual licence fees to the Commission while the Company has old or significant debts remaining outstanding or where the Company is not compliant with British Virgin Islands anti-money laundering laws and regulations (in each case as determined by MARS).

Termination

MARS shall be entitled, but shall not be required, to terminate its appointment under these Terms:

- (a) by giving not less than sixty (60) months' written notice to the Company;
- (b) by giving not less than fourteen (14) days' written notice to the Company if the Company shall have: (i) committed any breach of its obligations under these Terms; and/or (ii) failed to perform its obligations under the Act and/or the BOSS Act, and in each case where the Company shall have failed to make good such breach or perform its obligations within fourteen (14) days of receipt of written notice by MARS requiring it to do so;
- (c) by giving not less than seven (7) days' written notice to the Company if the Company or any person associated with the Company: (i) is in breach of any applicable regulatory law, the AMLRs, becomes subject to criminal proceedings, or is subject to any international financial sanction or is otherwise designated as a person with whom MARS is prohibited from dealing; (ii) no longer fits with MARS's business acceptance and/or continuance criteria and/or business profile, including by failing to comply with any obligations relating to KYC Information under these Terms; and/or (iii) makes a statement to MARS which is false, deceptive or misleading as determined by MCS (in its absolute discretion) in respect of any information required to be provided under the BOSS Act or otherwise.

Additionally, the Maples Group may, at any time and at its sole discretion:

- (a) refuse to grant the Company any access to any Portal or suspend or terminate the Company's access to any Portal, temporarily or permanently, upon giving written notice to the Company; and
- (b) deny or refuse access to any Portal by any person whomsoever, including any person who is appointed or otherwise engaged by the Company.

The Company may terminate the appointment of MARS under these Terms:

- (a) by giving not less than sixty (60) days' written notice to MARS; or

- (b) by giving not less than fourteen (14) days' written notice to MARS if MARS shall have committed any breach of its obligations under these Terms and shall have failed to make good such breach within fourteen (14) days of receipt of notice served by the Company requiring it to do so.

A termination of the appointment of MARS under the provisions above shall be without prejudice to any pre-existing liability of the parties to these Terms. MARS shall be entitled to receive all fees, expenses and disbursements accrued due up to the date of such termination, whether under these Terms or otherwise.

MARS shall, on the termination of its appointment under these Terms and upon payment by or on behalf of the Company of any outstanding Fees due to MARS, MCS BVI or to another member of the Maples Group, deliver or procure to be delivered to the Company, or as the Company may reasonably direct, the documents and records of the Company which are in its possession or under its control.

The Company shall, insofar as it has the corporate capacity to do so and on the termination of the appointment of MARS as authorised representative under these Terms, if still in existence, procure the passage of a board resolution to transfer the authorised representative function of the Company to an alternative agent and location and MARS shall in any event and whether such resolution has been passed or not be entitled to serve notice on the Commission advising that it no longer acts as authorised representative of the Company.

Legal Action

MARS shall not be required to take any legal action on behalf of the Company other than as may be expressly agreed in writing. In no circumstances shall MARS take any such action unless it and its directors, officers, authorised signatories, employees and affiliates are fully indemnified and remunerated to their reasonable satisfaction for costs and liabilities.

Instructions and Reliance

In performing its duties MARS shall be entitled to rely upon instructions given by, or purporting to be given by, a director or other officer, authorised signatory or other person authorised or appearing to be authorised by the Company or by any legal adviser, manager, promoter, advisor, administrator or other person performing a similar function and appointed by the Company.

Responsibility, Limitation of Liability, Indemnity and Release

MARS shall not be liable for any damages, losses, claims, proceedings, demands, liabilities, costs or expenses whatsoever suffered or incurred by the Company or any other person at any time from any cause whatsoever arising out of or in connection with these Terms or related to the performance or non-performance of the services provided under these Terms unless arising directly as a result of MARS's actual fraud or wilful default or that of any of its directors, officers, employees or agents (as the case may be).

The Company shall indemnify (on a full indemnity basis) and hold harmless MARS and each member of the Maples Group (for themselves and on trust and as agents for the benefit of the other Indemnified Persons mentioned below), their successors and assigns and their respective directors, officers, employees, agents and partners past, present and future (collectively, the "Indemnified Persons") and each of them, as the case may be, from and against all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, proceedings, investigations, government or regulatory actions, claims, judgments, orders, demands, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind (including legal fees and expenses of any kind, including without limitation to the foregoing, those relating to any of the aforementioned, and including those paid to a member of the Maples Group for services to an Indemnified Person) whatsoever which they or any of them may incur or be subject to in consequence of these Terms or as a result of the performance of these Terms or as a result of the performance of the services under these Terms except and to the extent that the same are as a result of the actual fraud or wilful default of the relevant Indemnified Person and this indemnity shall expressly inure to the benefit of any such Indemnified Person existing or future. No person shall be found to have committed actual fraud or wilful default under these Terms unless or until a court of the British Virgin Islands has reached a final non-appealable determination to that effect.

MARS shall not be liable in tort, statutory duty, pre-contract or misrepresentation (other than fraudulent misrepresentation) or otherwise for (i) any consequential, indirect or special loss; or (ii) any economic losses (including loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), arising out of or in connection with these Terms in each case whether or not MARS has been advised of the possibility of such loss or damage and howsoever incurred. For the avoidance of doubt MARS shall not be so liable for any loss of goodwill or reputation.

Unless caused by their actual fraud, the maximum aggregate liability of any Indemnified Person(s) under these Terms is limited to an amount not exceeding three (3) times the fees paid to MARS for the services provided under these Terms in the twelve (12) month period prior to:

- (a) the final non-appealable determination of liability by a court of the British Virgin Islands; or
- (b) the termination of MARS's appointment under these Terms, whichever is greater.

This Responsibility, Limitation of Liability, Indemnity and Release provision shall survive termination of these Terms.

Force Majeure

MARS shall not be held liable for any delay or failure to fulfil its obligations under these Terms as a result of causes beyond its reasonable control. Such causes include, but are not limited to, fire, floods, hurricanes, pandemics, tropical storms, typhoons, acts of God, acts and regulations of any governmental or supranational authority, wars, riots, strikes, lock-outs and industrial disputes.

Miscellaneous

These Terms may not be assigned by either party without the written consent of the other save only that MARS may assign the benefit and/or burden of these Terms to a suitably licensed Maples Group entity as part of any group restructuring.

MARS shall not be obligated to account to the Company for any interest received by MARS with respect to any monies held by MARS for and on behalf of the Company.

Notwithstanding any other term in these Terms, MARS may, at its own expense, delegate all or any of the services on its part to be performed under these Terms to another Maples Group entity. If MARS does delegate all or any of the services to another Maples Group entity in accordance with this paragraph (a "Delegate"), MARS shall nonetheless remain solely responsible to the Company for the provision of the services and liable to the Company for any loss caused to the Company by the Delegate but only to the extent that MARS would have been liable for such loss under these Terms if such loss were caused by MARS itself and the Delegate shall have no liability of any sort whatsoever or howsoever arising under these Terms or as a consequence of the delegation of all or any services to it. The Company agrees that it may not bring any claim against any Delegate in relation to the provision of services under these Terms by MARS.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Terms MARS shall, at all times, comply with all laws and regulations applicable to it including but not limited to its obligations as the holder of an authorised representative certification issued by the Commission.

Data Protection

In providing the services and otherwise fulfilling its obligations under these Terms, MARS may from time to time be required to process information which: (i) constitutes 'personal data' as defined in section 2 of the British Virgin Islands' Data Protection Act (As Revised) (the "DPA"); and (ii) is disclosed to or otherwise made available to MARS by or on behalf of the Company ("Relevant Personal Data"). The Company acknowledges and agrees that: (a) to the extent MARS acts as a 'data controller' (as defined in section 2 of the DPA) in respect of the Relevant Personal Data, MARS may process the Relevant Personal Data in accordance with the applicable data protection laws (including the DPA) and MARS's privacy notice (available at www.maples.com/privacy or upon request); and (b) to the extent MARS acts as a 'data processor' (as defined in section 2 of the DPA) in respect of the Relevant Personal Data, the provisions of the 'Data Processing Addendum (BVI)' (in the form available at www.maples.com/privacy) shall apply to any processing of Relevant Personal Data undertaken by MARS.

Before disclosing any Relevant Personal Data to MARS, the Company shall ensure that it has obtained the necessary consent of the individuals to whom the Relevant Personal Data relates, or that it is otherwise legally permitted under the DPA to share the Relevant Personal Data with MARS, so that MARS may in turn lawfully process the Relevant Personal Data in accordance with these Terms.

EU General Data Protection Regulation

Where the Company is directly subject to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of 27 April 2016 (the "GDPR") due to Article 3(2)(a) of the GDPR and MARS is required to process any Relevant Personal Data which is subject to the GDPR, or alternatively, where the Company requires MARS to process Relevant Personal Data which the Company indirectly sources from an affiliate of the Company or a relevant third party domiciled in the EEA, the Company may request that MARS enter into EU standard contractual clauses ("EU SCC") with the Company:

- (a) in the form set out in Commission Implementing Decision (EU) 2021/914; and/or
- (b) in such other form as the European Commission may adopt from time to time pursuant to Article 46 of the GDPR, but only if and to the extent the Company is unable to rely on Article 45 or Article 49 of the GDPR in making the Relevant Personal Data available to MARS.

MARS shall not unreasonably refuse the Company's request that MARS enters into an EU SCC.

Confidentiality

It is agreed between the Company and MARS (together, the "Parties") that neither Party shall, at any time, disclose to any other person and shall treat as confidential, any information relating to the business, finances or other matters of the other Party, which such Party has obtained as a result of its relationship with the other Party under these Terms, save where the information is or was:

- (a) already known to the recipient from a source other than the other Party without any obligation of confidentiality;
- (b) in the public domain or becomes public knowledge otherwise than as a result of the unauthorised or improper conduct of the disclosing Party;
- (c) disclosed as required by any law or order of any court, tribunal or judicial equivalent, or pursuant to any direction, request or requirement (whether or not having the force of law) of any central bank, governmental, supervisory or other regulatory agency or taxation authority (provided that, if legally permissible, the recipient will promptly inform the other Party of any such order, direction, request or requirement prior to disclosing any information);
- (d) disclosed for legitimate business purposes to affiliates, professional advisors, service providers or agents, engaged by one of the Parties, who receive the same under a duty of confidentiality (including where the Company's KYC Information is disclosed by MARS to other members of the Maples Group as described in the Recycling of KYC Information section of these Terms);

- (e) made available by a third party who is/was entitled to divulge such information and who is not under any obligation of confidentiality in respect of such information to the other Party; or
- (f) disclosed with the consent of the other Party.

For these purposes MARS shall be entitled to disclose information relating to the business, finances and other matters, including regulatory correspondence, to Maples Group entities including MCS BVI, unless instructed in writing in advance by the Company not to disclose such information.

The Parties shall ensure, and it is deemed to be understood and relied upon, that any confidential information provided to the other Party in relation to any principals, affiliates, shareholders, directors, officers, employees and agents ("Subject Persons") of the disclosing Party is and has been provided with the consent and acceptance of the relevant Subject Persons, which the disclosing Party will be responsible for obtaining.

This Confidentiality provision: (i) does not prohibit MCS BVI from disclosing information within the Maples Group for legitimate business purposes (subject to any such recipients of confidential information keeping it confidential in accordance with these Terms); (ii) does not prohibit the Company from disclosing a copy of these Terms to its Members or prospective Members; and (iii) shall survive termination of these Terms.

Use of Technology and Artificial Intelligence

In providing services to the Company, MARS may use a range of technologies provided by third-party service providers. Such technologies may include, but are not limited to, those that facilitate minute-taking, document digitisation, document automation, audio transcription, remote conferencing, workflow management, electronic discovery, and digital signature, including those that may utilise artificial intelligence capabilities and/or cloud-based systems. MARS exercises reasonable care and skill in selecting and utilising such technologies in accordance with its legal, regulatory, and professional obligations, as well as these Terms, including by employing appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect the security and privacy of any information shared with the relevant service providers.

Anti-bribery

MARS has policies and procedures in place relating to bribery and corruption. Severance

If any provision of these Terms shall be found by any court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the other provisions of these Terms which shall remain in full force and effect.

If any provision of these Terms is so found to be invalid or unenforceable but would be valid or enforceable if some part of the provision were modified, the provision in question shall apply with such modification(s) as may be necessary to make it valid.

Variation

The Company acknowledges and agrees that MARS may, in its sole discretion, at any time and from time to time change, alter, adapt, add or remove portions of these Terms (including the Fee Schedule), and, if MARS does so, MARS will post any such changes on each of the Maples Group site (www.maples.com), the Maples Group e-Services site (www.mapleservices.com) and the Maples Group Phoenix site (<https://phoenix.maples.com>) bearing the date on which such Terms came into effect. The current version of these Terms is also available on request. The Company's continued use of MARS's services following any such change shall be deemed and constitutes the Company's acceptance of those changes and the Company acknowledges and agrees to be bound by the current version of these Terms at all times and that unless stated in the current version of these Terms all previous versions shall be superseded by the current version.

Arbitration and Waiver of Legal Proceedings

All claims, disputes and controversies arising out of or in connection with these Terms, may, at MARS's option, be subject to binding arbitration to be held in the British Virgin Islands before a retired judge or senior lawyer to be agreed upon between the parties or in the absence of such agreement to be appointed by the President of the British Virgin Islands Bar Association or the President of any successor self-regulatory association for British Virgin Islands attorneys (or, if such President is affiliated with the Maples Group, the First Vice President). The arbitration will be conducted in English and in accordance with the London Court of International Arbitration Rules. The arbitrator's award shall be final and binding and may be entered in or enforced by any competent court. If court action (including any kind of claim, suit or proceeding) has been initiated by the Company against MARS at or prior to the time MARS elects to refer the issue to arbitration as provided for under these Terms, then it is agreed that such action shall be discontinued, unless any arbitrator appointed determines that MARS has waived the right to such a discontinuance by participating in the action without having raised, reserved or asserted its rights under this provision.

Entire Agreement

These Terms supersede all previous agreements between the Company and MARS for the provision of registered agent and registered office services and the services set out in Schedule 1 to these Terms to the Company. These Terms set out the entire agreement and understanding between the parties relating to its subject matter.

Proper Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms and any dispute, claim, suit, action or proceeding of whatever nature arising out of or in any way related to them or their formation (including any non-contractual disputes or claims) are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, the laws of the British Virgin Islands.

Subject to the Arbitration and Waiver of Legal Proceedings provision set out above, each of the parties to these Terms irrevocably agrees that the courts of the British Virgin Islands shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine any claim, suit, action or proceeding, and to settle any disputes, which may arise out of or are in any way related to or in connection with these Terms, and, for such purposes, irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts.
