

BEN YIP
General Counsel & Head of Compliance
Nan Fung Trinity

Ben Yip is currently the General Counsel and Head of Compliance at Nan Fung Trinity, where he oversees the legal, regulatory and compliance needs of its investment management, advisory, public and private investment, and family office initiatives.

Prior to joining Nan Fung Trinity, he served as the Head of Legal and Compliance at NFT Capital, where he was responsible for overseeing the legal and compliance aspects of the firm's asset management business, particularly in relation to investment transactions in the US, Europe, APAC and China.

Before his tenure at NFT Capital Limited, Ben was an in-house counsel at the Nan Fung Group, where he provided legal advice on the group's private equity, direct investments, and joint ventures transactions. With over 15 years of experience at the Nan Fung Group, he has developed extensive expertise in structuring investment portfolios, crafting legal strategies, and advising on governance matters for family offices.

Earlier in his career, Ben held various in-house counsel and compliance positions in Hong Kong and Beijing. Before transitioning to in-house roles, Ben was an attorney at King & Wood Mallesons, where he managed a diverse range of matters, including mergers and acquisitions, foreign direct investments, VIE structures, joint ventures and commercial transactions.
